Based on the Founding Philosophy, one of the most important management issues for the TOMY Group today is maintaining the trust of our stakeholders, including shareholders and customers, while offering continual improvements in corporate value and building on sound and transparent management practices. We will make every effort to achieve this through strong corporate governance, including enhanced self-check functions, risk management and compliance system, even as we improve operational efficiency.

<Founding Philosophy>

Let’s excite the world’s markets with our outstanding products.

Our sincerity and diligence will contribute to society and lead to our own success and happiness.

For the details of the TOMY Group’s corporate governance and its Founding Philosophy, which is a fundamental and permanent component of the TOMY Group which has served us well and constitutes the basis for our corporate activities toward the improvement of corporate governance, please see TOMY’s website.

Founding Philosophy and Corporate Mission

(www.takaratomy.co.jp/english/company/company/philosophy.html)

[Reason for not implementing each principle of the Corporate Governance Code] [Updated]

TOMY implements all the individual principles of the Corporate Governance Code.

[Disclosure based on each principle of the Corporate Governance Code] [Updated]

[Principle 1.4] Cross-Shareholdings

(1) Policy for cross-shareholdings

TOMY has a policy of holding shares of other companies when it determines that they are necessary as part of management strategies, such as sustained business alliances, or in order to develop good relationships with its business partners and facilitate the smooth operation of business. The Board of Directors annually examines the significance of the acquisition or holding of, and the economic rationality for, each individual cross-shareholding, and any cross-shareholdings of which the Board of Directors does not recognize the reasonableness are to be reduced, taking its market value, etc. into account. As a result of review, TOMY sold some cross-shareholdings during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2022.

(2) Exercise of voting rights

For voting rights as to the cross-shareholdings, TOMY determines whether it will vote for or against each proposal after comprehensively considering the following points: whether the company that issued the shares has established an appropriate corporate governance system; whether such company has made the proposal to improve its corporate value in the medium- and long-term; and the effects on the Company. TOMY makes a careful decision especially in the case of a long-term decline in earnings, a serious scandal or a proposal that damages shareholder value.

[Principle 1.7] Related Party Transactions

When TOMY engages in transactions with its Directors, Audit & Supervisory Board members or major shareholders, to ensure that such transactions do not harm the interests of the Company or the common interests of its shareholders, and to prevent any concerns with respect to such harm, the Board of Directors monitors the transactions through appropriate procedures, including approval and reporting at the Board of Directors meetings in accordance with laws and regulations or the Regulations of the Board of Directors of the Company, in proportion to the importance and characteristics of the transaction.

[Supplementary Principle 2.4.1] Approach to and Target for Ensuring Diversity, Policy for Human Resource Development, and Policy for Internal Environmental Improvement

Under the Founding Philosophy, “Let’s excite the world’s markets with our outstanding products. Our sincerity and diligence will contribute to society and lead to our own success and happiness,” the TOMY Group stipulates in its Code of Conduct that it “will respect individuality and foster initiative and creativity.” TOMY believes that new ideas that will excite global markets and both children and adults are created through team work that respects individual personalities, skills, and diverse values. We strive to develop a work environment where various people can work and continue growing, and that provides a source of innovation.

1. The TOMY Group respects human rights, never engages in unfair discrimination, tries to offer fair treatment and work opportunities, and promotes the education and appointment of human resources in consideration of diversity.

2. The TOMY Group promotes developing a work environment and corporate culture that encourage individual employees with different values, backgrounds, and life stages to demonstrate their ability to the maximum extent without losing their identity, while continuing to create new value in play.

The TOMY Group promotes the fair education and appointment of human resources regardless of their nationality and employment category, while taking diversity into consideration. Accordingly, the Group does not set numerical targets, particularly for hiring foreign nationals or mid-career persons.

The approach to and numerical targets for the appointment of female employees to managerial positions are presented under “Promoting Diversity and Female Advancement” on TOMY’s website.

www.takaratomy.co.jp/english/company/csr/work_style_reform/diversity.html

[Principle 2.6] Roles of Corporate Pension Funds as Asset Owners

TOMY periodically monitors the management of plan assets and reviews the policy composition of plan assets when necessary. In addition, TOMY provided the basic policy on asset management and the asset management guidelines to asset managers and comprehensively assesses them by conducting quantitative assessment as well as qualitative assessment of their investment policies, asset management processes and compliance. The Human Resources Department of TOMY reviews their management of assets and periodically exchanges information with them.

[Principle 3.1] Full Disclosure

For society, TOMY Group will continue to be a faithful and trusted corporate citizen for the 21st Century.

[Management Indicators]

For the fiscal year ending March 31, 2024, the final year of the Medium-term Management Plan, we aim for net sales of ¥185 billion, operating income of ¥15 billion, and ROE of over 12%.

[Medium-term Business Strategy]

While there is no end in sight to the COVID-19 pandemic, we will prepare for changes in economic activity and consumer behavior in a “with COVID-19” environment, and will strive to achieve the Medium-term Management Plan.

We will leverage our experience and practical accomplishments gained through this unusual environment in responding in a timely and flexible manner to changes in the business environment brought about by the COVID-19 crisis, based on the following policy.

- Adjust to a “with COVID-19” approach, placing priority on the health and safety of customers, business partners and TOMY Group’s employees (remote work, for instance)
- Respond to a change in consumer behavior
- Change the business structure to one that can cope with changes in the external environment (responding to social circumstances, depreciation of the Japanese yen, and raw material price hikes)
- Take advantage of TOMY’s strengths (in terms of product lineup, brand, and customer base) in developing business
- Control costs in accordance with the business environment, and secure liquid capital

We will continue allocating business resources under the assumption that a dramatic change in the external environment may influence consumer buying behavior.

The TOMY Group advances further reinforcement of the core toy business and establishment of a solid operating base as well as promotion of overseas expansion and plans for transformation into a truly Outstanding Global Company for the “Fulfillment of the dreams of our stakeholders” written in the Corporate Mission.

TOMY will engage in management activities for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2023, which is an important milestone as the second year of the Medium-term Management Plan for the three years from the fiscal year ended March 31, 2022 to the fiscal year ending March 31, 2024.

<Medium-term Management Plan>

To bring customers more excitement, surprise, emotion, and smiles, which are the essential value of toys, the TOMY Group works to shift the core of the business from “toys” to “asobi.” In the Medium-term Management Plan, the TOMY Group embraces the vision that “We believe asobi makes the world better, therefore, we will contribute to the future global society through asobi,” targeting a wide range of generations and market areas, and expanding business fields.

Our medium-term policy is “We will leverage our strengths globally, and build the foundation towards Sustainable Growth.” We promote the above vision and policy by engaging in the following six company-wide strategies:

(i) Grow core brands based on their strengths

We successfully worked on expanding TOMICA’s presence in the Asian market, maintaining Beyblade’s presence so it would be included in evergreen content in the US, Europe and Asia, acquiring more Kidults fans of TRANSFORMERS and Diaclone, as well as creating an image character of LICCA. In the future, we will promote TOMY’s products of various brands and its IP partners’ valuable brands in markets where their strengths can have more effective appeal.

(ii) Create big hits in Japan

Market growth was driven by the big hit of the liquid-crystal toy “Puniruns” in Japan and the sales expansion of products related to “Paw Patrol,” a popular TV animation in overseas markets.

We will continue the efforts to propose a product that can be ranked No. 1 in individual categories, and collaborate with IP partners and overseas manufacturer partners.

(iii) The continuation of IP investment

We newly generated sales by marketing “SHINKALION Z,” “MAZICA PARTY,” and “Bitfriends×Heroine Kiramekipowers!,” etc. successfully.

We will continue IP investment and global development for our future growth.

(iv) Launch new businesses with asobi as key

We started another initiative of marketing NELTIP, dedicated nail tip printing machines for the teen fashion market, MY BABY AMI-CHAN, a communication doll embedded with a facial recognition function for the elderly market, and SORA-Q, a shift-type ultra-small-sized moon robot jointly developed with JAXA, etc.

With amusement machines “Pokémon MEZASTAR,” “Waccha PriMagi!,” and “DRAGON QUEST the Adventure of Dai,” which are the driving force of the market, we will continue the efforts to create business with growth potential and develop a new market.

(v) Create new value by utilizing DX for value chain

In the with-COVID-19 environment, we promoted digitalization by introducing Digital Expo and Digital Catalog, etc., which transformed sales activities dramatically. In the future, we will incorporate digital and real tools to streamline sales activities and enhance information value. Regarding Takara Tomy Mall, our D2C business, we aim to expand the business by introducing customer ID clustering, which enables us to provide customers with appropriate information at an appropriate timing.

(vi) Sustainability and CSR initiatives

The TOMY Group has launched and worked towards sustainability targets and KPIs in line with its eight material issues for achieving its sustainability vision of becoming friends with children around the world. For themes that particularly require cross-sectional action, we have established a theme-specific task force supervised by the Sustainability Promotion Division under the direct control of Representative Director, President & COO, where executive officers in charge and various members across various sections engage in execution, promotion, and making proposals for relevant initiatives.

To achieve the above company-wide strategies, we will work to establish a robust financial base and improve capital efficiency by utilizing the Group’s capital effectively, and secure and cultivate human resources by fostering a new corporate culture and creating a comfortable work environment.

Our corporate philosophy, business strategies, and business plan, as well as Sustainability and CSR initiatives, are disclosed on our corporate website, and in our annual reports, financial results presentation materials and securities reports, etc.

[Supplementary Principle 4.1.1] Scope of Matters to Be Resolved by the Board of Directors and Scope of Matters Delegated to Management

TOMY has set the Regulations of the Board of Directors and “TOMY Approval Standard,” which specify the scope of important matters to be discussed at Board of Directors meetings, in addition to matters specified by laws and regulations.

To increase agility and flexibility in the execution of business, the Board of Directors delegates to Directors decision-making on the execution of business, except for the matters provided by laws and regulations, the Articles of Incorporation, Regulations of the Board of Directors, and TOMY Approval Standard.

[Principle 4.9] Independence Standards and Qualification for Independent Outside Directors

TOMY has not established its own independence standards for appointing outside Directors, but in appointing them, it applies the independence standards established by Tokyo Stock Exchange, Inc. (criteria for independence set out in accordance with the “Guidelines concerning Listed Company Compliance, etc.” III 5. (3)-2).

[Supplementary Principle 4.10.1] Independence, Authority and Roles of the Nominating and Remuneration Committees

TOMY is a company with an Audit & Supervisory Board, a majority of the members of the Board of Directors are independent outside Directors. Moreover, the Board Director Nominating Committee and the Remuneration Committee were established as advisory bodies to the Board of Directors and consist of one internal Director in charge of compliance and four independent outside officers. The Board Director Nominating Committee deliberates on Directors and Director positions, and nominates Directors. The Remuneration Committee deliberates on Director remuneration based on the policy for determining the amount of remuneration for Directors. Both committees ensure independence and objectivity as stated above.

[Supplementary Principle 4.11.1] Views on the Composition of the Board of Directors, and Skill Matrix of the Board

(1) Policy for nominating candidates for Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board members

TOMY considers that management from diverse perspectives is indispensable for developing its business, promoting globalization, and advancing appropriate supervision/audits. As such, in principle, TOMY nominates candidates for Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board members from among persons who have management capability and the diverse experience required for management decision making, while satisfying the following requirements, taking into consideration the diversification and balance of TOMY's human resources. In addition, in order to ensure independence and transparency, the majority of the members of both bodies shall be independent officers.

(2) Requirements for candidates for Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board members

[Directors] The Board Director Nominating Committee selects Executive Directors, taking into consideration their administrative experience in marketing, sales, production, and administration, including global knowledge and management experience necessary for appropriately drawing up, deliberating and making decisions on business policies and strategies, and whether they have a good understanding of TOMY's Founding Philosophy and Corporate Mission. The Board Director Nominating Committee proposes the candidates for outside Directors, prioritizing their diverse experience and deep insight that are required for deliberation and decision making on management policies and cannot be provided solely by Executive Directors, while taking into consideration their independence.

[Audit & Supervisory Board members] The Audit & Supervisory Board nominates Audit & Supervisory Board members, taking into consideration their high degree of professionalism and deep insight as an attorney, certified public accountant, or other professional, and experience and qualification necessary for deliberation of management policies and business strategies, and whether they have a good understanding of TOMY's Founding Philosophy and Corporate Mission. The Audit & Supervisory Board selects one of the members based on his/her work experience in administrative divisions, such as accounting and finance, and knowledge gained from such experience and capability of maintaining independence from Executive Directors.

Please see [Expertise and experience of Directors] presented later in this report for the skill matrix of Directors of TOMY.

[Supplementary Principle 4.11.3] Analysis and Evaluation of Effectiveness of the Board of Directors as a Whole

At least once a year, TOMY distributes questionnaires on the overall effectiveness of the Board of Directors to its constituent members to conduct a self-evaluation. The Risk/Compliance Committee, an advisory body to the Board of Directors, engages in discussions based on the results of the responses to the questionnaire. The evaluation results and issues are then shared at subsequent Board of Directors meetings, leading to improvements that will enhance the effectiveness of the Board.

The results have confirmed that the diversity of the members of the Board has been ensured with respect to its effectiveness, that Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board members each actively engage in discussions, and that a system has been developed to approve key management matters and oversee business execution appropriately. In addition, the results indicate that TOMY has formulated and is managing the progress of its medium-term management plan that helps enhance corporate value, that active information disclosure is being carried out and that internal control systems have been put in place. However, the results have also identified issues, including a need to improve the provision of the Company's business-related information to outside officers and communication between officers, in order to expand discussions regarding issues such as medium- to long-term management strategies and risk management, enhance monitoring functions, and formulate a management executive development plan.

TOMY will pursue initiatives aimed at ensuring further effectiveness of the Board of Directors while taking these issues into account.

[Supplementary Principle 4.14.2] Training Programs for Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members
TOMY continues to provide its Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board members with training that is necessary for fulfilling their respective roles and responsibilities. TOMY also arranges opportunities for newly appointed outside Directors to receive an explanation of TOMY's industry, history, and business outline for their further understanding of the Company.

[Principle 5.1] Policy for Constructive Dialogue with Shareholders

(1) Basic views

TOMY considers shareholders and investors as an important stakeholder, and places an emphasis on constructive dialogue to improve our corporate value. To deepen mutual understanding of values and standpoints, and take appropriate action based on such understanding, the Company engages in dialogue with its shareholders as follows.

(2) Dialogue with institutional investors

TOMY's department responsible for investor relations of President Office is in charge of measures for dialogue with institutional investors under the supervision of Representative Director, President & COO. In collaboration with the Accounting Finance Division, the Corporate Planning Division and other related departments, the department holds regular meetings with institutional investors in and outside Japan and explains the outline and progress of management strategies, performance, business situation and shareholder returns, etc. of the Company to those investors. Moreover, the Company arranges opportunities to have direct dialogues with institutional investors that allow for exchanging opinions from a long-term point of view to increase its corporate value and takes responsive action to a reasonable extent. The outcome of such dialogues is reported to Representative Director, President and COO, etc. as needed.

(3) Dialogue with individual investors

At TOMY, the Corporate Human Resources & General Affairs Division's department responsible for handling shares and the department in charge of IR of President Office are in charge of measures regarding dialogue with individual investors and shareholders under the supervision of Representative Director, President & COO. These departments aim to communicate clearly to a reasonable extent. TOMY also introduces its business overview, business models and the current situation, etc. at explanatory sessions for individual investors held at regional branches of securities companies. Since dialogue with shareholders is a valuable and important opportunity to introduce our business overview, the Company aims to take sufficient time for Q&A at the General Meeting of Shareholders, and when necessary, provides an explanation of its medium-term policy, etc. In addition, efforts are being made to enhance shareholder newsletters and the IR website so they are useful to individual investors and shareholders in making investment decisions.

(4) Appropriate management of insider information and quiet periods

TOMY actively engages in the disclosure of statutory information, as well as other information related to the Company, for constructive dialogue with shareholders and investors towards the enhancement of corporate value. During “quiet periods,” four weeks prior to the announcement of the financial results of each fiscal period, the Company refrains from making comments and answering questions related to financial results. However, if, during the quiet periods, the possibility arises that the financial results will deviate significantly from the earnings forecast, shareholders and investors will be updated as needed. In addition, the Company has established regulations concerning disclosure and the prevention of insider trading, expressly stating that it discloses information in a fair manner, does not make selective disclosure, and protects the confidentiality of insider information. In order to ensure this, all officers and employees are provided with training periodically.

Supplementary Information [Updated]

<Outline of policy for responding to large-scale purchases of Company shares (Anti-takeover Measures)>
TOMY received shareholder approval at the 71st Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 22, 2022, regarding the continuation of its policy for responding to large-scale purchases of Company shares (hereinafter, the “Response Policy”). The Response Policy consists of a “rights plan with prior warnings,” which provides for the allotment of stock acquisition rights without contribution (hereinafter, “countermeasures”), the details of which are as follows.

1. Response Policy Overview

An overview of the Response Policy is provided below. For additional details, please refer to “Notice Concerning Continuation of Policy toward Large-Scale Purchases, etc., of Company’s Shares (Anti-takeover Measures)” published on the TOMY corporate website on May 10, 2022.

(Reference URL: <https://ssl4.eir-parts.net/doc/7867/tdnet/2114714/00.pdf>)

- (1) A party (hereinafter, “purchaser”) intending to make a purchase (hereinafter, “large-scale purchase”) of shares that would result in such party holding 20% or more of the shares issued by the Company must provide TOMY with information on the large-scale purchase, in principle, within 60 days from the date on which the Board of Directors of TOMY presented the list of necessary information to the purchaser (this can be extended up to an additional 30 days).
- (2) In the event of an emergency, the TOMY Board of Directors will establish a special committee. The special committee may request the Board of Directors to provide it with opinions and justification materials related to the planned large-scale purchase as well as alternative proposals.
- (3) After receiving information from the purchaser and the Board of Directors, the special committee will respond to issues raised by the Board of Directors, in principle, within 90 days (however, if the special committee has a justifiable reason, this can be extended up to an additional 30 days) from the time at which the Board of Directors receives a written proposal containing all information necessary to consider the large-scale purchase. The special committee will examine and evaluate the purchase details, determine whether to implement countermeasures against the purchaser and make its recommendation to the Board of Directors (moreover, the special committee reserves the right to seek the approval of the General Meeting of Shareholders before recommending that countermeasures be taken).
If necessary, the special committee can seek the advice of an independent outside expert. In addition, the Board of Directors will negotiate with the purchaser and disclose information to shareholders.
- (4) The Board of Directors shall respect the recommendations of the special committee as much as possible and pass a resolution on whether to ultimately take countermeasures. Moreover, if the special committee invokes its right to seek approval from the General Meeting of Shareholders regarding the recommended implementation of countermeasures, the Board of Directors shall, in principle, convene the General Meeting of Shareholders as soon as practical and submit a proposal for the implementation of countermeasures. In this situation, the Board of Directors will pass a resolution as to the implementation of countermeasures in accordance with the decision arrived at by the General Meeting of Shareholders.
- (5) In the event that the purchaser does not comply with the procedures set forth in the Response Policy, or if it is confirmed that TOMY’s corporate value and/or the common interests of TOMY shareholders will be clearly damaged and it is deemed appropriate to implement countermeasures, after a judgment by the special committee, the decision to implement countermeasures can be made.
- (6) In the event countermeasures are implemented, acquisition rights can be added for the execution of stock acquisition rights that are assigned to shareholders but not extended to the purchaser or others (hereinafter, “non-qualified persons”) as well as the exchange of stock acquisition rights for Company shares with persons other than non-qualified persons. As a result, if Company shares are issued to shareholders other than non-qualified persons, the ratio of Company share voting rights held by said non-qualified persons will be diluted.

2. Basic policy regarding the qualification of a person who controls the decision-making on TOMY's financial and business policies

With the Founding Philosophy, "Let's excite the world's markets with our outstanding products. Our sincerity and diligence will contribute to society and lead to our own success and happiness," TOMY has, since its founding, strived to provide children with not only products with superior safety and quality, but also "play" with superior quality, aiming to "nurture a sound children's culture."

Thanks to our customers' immense trust in us, many of our products, including PLARAIL, TOMICA, and LICCA, are long sellers across generations and have become our assets. Our Founding Philosophy is a fundamental and permanent component of TOMY that has served the Company and the Company Group well. TOMY has defined the following Corporate Mission as a compass for the achievement of the Founding Philosophy.

Our mission is to fulfill the dreams of our stakeholders, including

- The dreams of children
- The dreams of our employees
- The dreams of our shareholders
- The dreams of our business partners
- The dreams of society

We will create new value from play.

Amid the dramatic changes in the external environment and consumer behavior in recent times, we have renewed our vision that "we believe asobi makes the world better, therefore we will contribute to the future global society through asobi," based on the Founding Philosophy and Corporate Mission. Accordingly, we will shift the core base of our business from "toys" to "asobi," aiming to transform into a truly Outstanding Global Company.

We believe that the TOMY Group's efforts to realize the Founding Philosophy, Corporate Mission and this vision will maximize TOMY's corporate value, which will lead to the maximization of shareholder value. The TOMY Group continues to strive to create new value in play and improve product quality. For children, who will shape the future, we take seriously our mission to "nurture a sound children's culture," and promote further improvement of TOMY's brand value. We are confident that brand value management that allows the TOMY brand to shine will make every stakeholder's dream come true.

In the event that we receive a proposal for a large-scale purchase of Company stock, we must, before making a decision, assess appropriately and accurately the effects on the Founding Philosophy, Corporate Mission and vision that have won the sympathy of stakeholders and served us well, and on the corporate value and the common interests of shareholders of TOMY and the TOMY Group. To this end, we must duly examine the details of the business plan proposed by the purchaser and its feasibility and legality, effects on stakeholders of TOMY, effects on the corporate value of the Company and the Company Group, as well as the effects on TOMY's future plan.

Based on the above factors, the Board of Directors of TOMY considers that a person who conducts a large-scale purchase of Company stock or who makes a merger proposal that may not contribute to the security and improvement of the corporate value and the common interests of shareholders of TOMY may not be qualified to be a person who controls the decision-making on TOMY's financial and business policies.

3. Decision made by the Board of Directors regarding special measures that will contribute to the realization of the basic policy and regarding the Response Policy, as well as reasons for the decision

(1) Special measures that will contribute to the realization of the basic policy

The direct aim of the measures, including TOMY's Medium-term Management Plan and the "Strengthening of Corporate Governance," is to secure and improve the corporate value and the common interests of shareholders of TOMY, and therefore, the measures contribute to the realization of the above-mentioned "2. Basic policy regarding the qualification of a person who controls the decision-making on TOMY's financial and business policies" (hereinafter, "Basic Policy").

Therefore, the Board of Directors of TOMY concluded that the measures conform with the Basic Policy, and do not harm the corporate value and the common interests of shareholders of TOMY, or are not intended to maintain the positions of officers of TOMY.

(2) Response Policy

The Board of Directors of TOMY has concluded that the Response Policy conforms with the Basic Policy, and will not harm corporate value or the common interests of shareholders, or is not intended to maintain the positions of corporate officers of TOMY for the following reasons (among others): (i) the Response Policy is disclosed in advance in order to increase predictability for shareholders and investors, as well as purchasers, and to secure appropriate selection opportunities for shareholders; (ii) the introduction and continuation of anti-takeover measures in line with the Response Policy has been approved by shareholders at the General Meeting of Shareholders, and therefore, shareholder intent is reflected in the enforcement and continuation of the Response Policy. Moreover, when a proposal to discontinue the Response Policy is approved at a meeting of shareholders, the Response Policy shall be abolished immediately, and therefore, the continuation of the Response Policy is also subject to the intent of shareholders; (iii) in order to eliminate arbitrary judgements by Directors of the Company regarding the implementation of countermeasures stipulated in the Response Policy, a special committee has been established, consisting of independent outside Directors and outside Audit & Supervisory Board members who shall execute the business operations of the Company in an emergency, and the Board of Directors shall respect the special committee as much as possible in making judgements on invoking or not invoking countermeasures stipulated in the Response Policy; (iv) when the special committee reserves the right to seek the approval of the General Meeting of Shareholders before recommending that countermeasures be taken, the Board of Directors shall convene a shareholders meeting of the Company and pass a resolution as to the implementation of countermeasures in accordance with the decision arrived at by the General Meeting of Shareholders, and therefore, shareholder intent can be reflected in the implementation of countermeasures; and (v) reasonable and objective requirements must be satisfied to allow the countermeasures to be implemented.
