Four New Series Debut under TOMY's "T-SPARK" Hobby Label for High-end Customers:
Q VILLAGE, COLLEKAZARO, SPARK Fig, LEGACYSOUL;
Reservations to Start Sequentially from June

In Collaboration with Popular Works Such as
"Back to the Future," "The Fast & Furious," and "My Hero Academia"

TOMY Company, Ltd., based in Katsushika Ward, Tokyo, has announced four new series from the "T-SPARK" hobby label (for age 15 and up) targeting high-end customers. The new series will be available for pre-order on TOMY's official online store "Takara Tomy Mall" (takaratomymall.jp/) from June 2025.

The four new series -- Q VILLAGE, COLLEKAZARO, SPARK Fig, and LEGACYSOUL -- made their debut at the 63rd Shizuoka Hobby Show held from May 14 (Wednesday) through May 18 (Sunday), 2025.

The four series will also be available in Asia, the United States and Europe (availability of the series will vary depending on the relevant country/region).

Collaborating with popular characters, T-SPARK will utilize the "transformation," "combination" and "articulation" technologies that continue to attract hobby lovers, offering various ways to enjoy these figures by adding new items to its product lineup, such as alternative easy-to-display sizes.

(1) Q VILLAGE: A deformed format series that showcases a cute and cool world featuring a playset of vehicles and characters. The first product is a collaborative work with the "Back to the Future" movie series and the second with the "The Fast & Furious" movie series.

(2) COLLEKAZARO: A series of 3.75 inches (10 cm) collectible figures in collaboration with characters. The first line is a collaborative product with the TV anime "My Hero Academia."

(3) SPARK Fig: A series of figures of anime characters and other characters in scale and non-scale sizes. The first product in the series is a figure from the TV anime "Princession Orchestra."

(4) LEGACYSOUL: A line of popular products from the past that have been modernized with new mechanisms. The first in the series is "Microman" and the second "Super B-Daman."

Yutaka Tajima, Senior General Manager, Head of Hobby Character Business Division, Character Business at TOMY Company says: "The new series is a figure series that can be enjoyed regardless of gender, with an emphasis on not only replicating the characters, but also on the "Asobi (playing)" that only TOMY Company can offer with a variety of play patterns, and expanding its possibilities through its highly collectable nature. As a new challenge for TOMY, we will also commence sales on the official North American online store "TOMY PLUS" (us.tomy.com/brand/tomy-plus/) operated by TOMY International, Inc. In July, the company plans to exhibit at Ani-com & Games Hong Kong 2025 (ACG Hong Kong), one of the largest anime, manga and game events in Hong Kong SAR, to communicate the value of fun through hobby products to Japan and overseas. We now look forward to responses from fans around the world."
